To Buyers.

The cabinet of Coins herein catalogued has been examined very closely by the principal Collectors of this city, and the important pieces, as catalogued, submitted to their approval. It gives us pleasure to announce that the universal verdict is, "the Coins have been fairly described."

If any buyer should feel the slightest hesitation in bidding, such person shall have by mail a private description of any piece or pieces, and the description endorsed by experts.

Any coin not proving as described, can be returned within ten days after sale.

Feeling that our efforts to describe the pieces fairly will be appreciated, we remain

Truly your obedient Servants.

1866 Pattern 5-d piece Washington

U. S. CENTS.

501 1793 Wreath, lettered edge, fine; slightly touched on hair; handsome olive color; very rare in this condition.*

502 1793 Chain, circulated, or worn; lettering, chain and date all distinct—in this respect might be called a good cent, although slightly battered around the edge.

503 1793 Liberty cap, date and letters of obverse plain, reverse very poor; very rare.

504 1794 Very fine; beautiful light olive color; "broad date" variety.

505 1795 An extra good cent—slightly worn on hair; good color, might be called fine.

506 1796 Liberty cap, same description as preceding.

507 1796 Fillet head, very fine, light olive color, "One

508 1796 Fine; good color, cracked die—the crack extending entirely across centre of obverse; scarce.

*This piece brought $17 50 at the Mickley Sale.

509 1797 Fine; ordinary die, might be termed uncirculated.

510 1797 Fair, dark in color.

511 1798 Fine, good color, slightly marred on field; rare in this condition.

512 1799 Good, excepting a dent at edge of cent, under the last 9; genuineness of this piece doubted; although from the Finotti collection and "warranted genuine" by the manager of that sale.

513 1800 A good impression, might say a fine piece, but lacking in color.

514 1801 An extra good coin; broken die; 1-000 variety.

515 1802 Fine, weak in word "Liberty," dark color.

516 1803 Fine, good color, a desirable cent.

517 1804 Good. Not believed genuine. Owner says, "this cent came from an old dealer as genuine."

518 1805 Fine, although slightly marred in upper part of legend "Liberty," seldom found in this condition. The manager takes this occasion to pronounce the 1805 cent a very scarce coin, and very rarely found in fine condition.

519 1806 Good, scarce.

520 1807 Over 6, fine, but very weak in legend "Liberty." Color uneven, but not objectionable

521 1807 Perfect die, good impression, black and rusty.

522 1808 Very good impression and color, scarce.

523 1809 Considerably worn, but all distinct. Rare.

524 1810 Small date, good, slightly corroded.

525 1811 Perfect die, good, scarce.

526 1812 Very good, light color.

527 1813 do do black.

528 1814 do do dark. Plain 4.

529 1814 Very fair, dark. Crossed 4.

530 1816 (2) Fine, light. Good impression.

531 1817 Very fine, light. Bold impression.

532 1817 15 stars, extra good, light. Good impression.

533 1817 13 stars, extra good, light. Good impression.
534 1818 Fine, cleaned, extra good, light. Bold impression.
535 1819 Large date, *uncirculated, light olive. Bold impression.
536 1819 Small date, very fine, bronzed.
537 1820 Over 1819, do do
538 1821 Fine, but little worn, good color, scarce.

551 1834 Very fine, light O. color, slightly touched on hair.
552 1834 Good.
553 1835 do
554 1836 Very fine, L. O. C.
555 1837 Uncirculated, red.
556 1838 Very good.
557 1839 "Booby Head," uncirculated, L. O. C.
558 1839 Bull or silly head, good.
559 1839 '40 head, extra good.
560 1840 Good.
561 1841 Extra good.

The term "uncirculated" is used throughout this catalogue as understood numismatically, although a misnomer in its literal application to coins in general, yet understood among numismatists as meaning a degree above "very fine." There will be found but a slight difference in the coins between the two terms, yet when the piece is really perfect in color and condition, we pronounce it uncirculated.—M. & Co.

562 1842 Fine, dull stars, red.
